Pressly Completes Arrangements for All-Star Games

ALL-STAR CAROLINIANS WILL PLAY ALL-STAR VIRGINIANS

Final and definite arrangements were completed yesterday, by which Dr. W. R. Pressly, manager of the Roanoke team, in the Virginia League, will head an all-star cast from this circuit in a series of games against another all-star aggregation gathered from the Carolina Association and piloted by Tommy Stouch, manager of the Durham club.

The series will be played during the week of September 15, the week following the close of the regular season in the Boatwright organization. Secretary Bradley has given the park.

Neither Manager Stouch nor Manager Pressly is ready to announce their line-up. Pressly must wait upon the judgment of the fans in Virginia. Stouch may be following a similar method in Carolina. At any rate, the line-ups will not be known for several days. Both managers are anxious to bring together the very pick of their leagues.

Regardless of everything else, regardless that the test will largely determine the championship of Virginia and North Carolina, regardless of the rivalry existing between the two States, the fact remains that local fans will be given an opportunity to witness good baseball between teams evenly matched.

The series will consist of seven games, one each on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, with a doubleheader on Saturday. Frank Norcum and Shamokin Kelly will probably be the umpires.

All the matches were close excepting that between Palmer and Meade, in which Palmer played championship golf from the start, going out in 38 and making 42 coming in. On the other hand, Meade was slightly off his game and weak on fils putting, usually his strong point.

The game between Locker and Jones was close at all stages. Wood's game against Call was consistent. The game between Perrin and Harrison seesawed from start to finish.

It is expected that several more friendly matches will be arranged between the two clubs, in which a larger number of players will participate.
